

Rich Brimer's Oil Painting Class Supply List

I have the following in the studio:

- An easel
- A tabletop or TV tray to place your palette on.
- Brush Soap (Masters)

The following is a list of things you should bring.

Panels (Canvas wrapped or wood panels — primed with gesso)

- 8x10" or 9x12" for weekly set-ups
- Larger if you want to work on a multi-class project

Oil Paints (in my Standard palette arrangement)

I really like Williamsburg paints for most of my oil colors. You can use whatever you have, but try to avoid the student grade paints and "hues". I will add an asterisk (*) after the very necessary colors. All others you can add in time.

- Permanent Crimson (Not Alizarine Crimson)
- Permanent Rose or Quinacridone Red*
- Cadmium Red light
- Cadmium Orange
- Cadmium Yellow Medium*
- Cadmium Yellow (Lemon or Light)
- Indian Yellow* (Gamblin)
- Cadmium Green or Permanent Green
- Sap Green* (Windsor Newton)
- Viridian
- Cobalt Teal
- Ultramarine Blue*
- King's Blue (Sennelier)
- Dioxazine Purple*
- White* (I use Permalba brand for my white.)
- Ivory Black
- Transparent Iron Oxide* or Asphaltum*
- Burnt Umber

Brushes

Have a variety of sizes and shapes. Hog hair bristle. I like Robert Simmons — Signat

- Filberts #2, 4, 8
- Flat #4
- Liner or striper #1 (a long thin round brush)

Palette

I recommend buying something that is mobile and closes. My preference is the French Mistress because it closes and you can take your fresh paint home.

Paper Towels

I recommend using Viva or blue shop towels (Costco or Auto Store) because the surface is smooth and soft. They are very heavy duty and paint does not seep through as easily as cheap paper towels.

Turp can with Odorless Mineral Spirits (OMS, Gamsol)

Wet Panel Carrier

There are many to choose from, but a small pizza box works great from the studio to your car. Some carriers allow painting panels to slide in vertically and can be carried over shoulder with a strap. Raymar is one brand that I really like because it is lightweight and comes in a variety of sizes.

IMPORTANT: You don't need to wait until your list is complete to start (or continue) with my classes. I am always willing to share supplies with anyone as needed.
